 Replacement soldering tips for Weller WE550, WE551, WD1 and WD2, and Weller hand pieces EC1201A, EC1204A, PE550, PE551 and WCC101. Comparable to Weller's ET series of tips. See cross references or data sheets for tip-to-tip referencing.

Plato is one of the largest manufacturers of soldering tips in the world, producing tips to fit all of the most popular soldering stations. The long life and fast heat recovery of Plato soldering tips increases user effectiveness and decreases production times.

FEATURES & BENEFITS

- Fast heat recovery increases soldering speed
- Longer tip life reduces soldering cost by decreasing tip change overs

ULTIMATE GUIDE TO ELECTRONIC SOLDERING
 What is soldering? Soldering is the joining of two metal surfaces mechanically and electrically, with the use of metal called solder. Solder secures the connection so it doesn't break loose from vibration, other mechanical forces and provides electrical continuity, so the electronic signal tr...
